Q & A WITH BEST OF TAMPA BAY DENTIST – DR. DAVID SHERBERG, DMD

Q: What does it mean to be a One-Stop-Shop? Specialization in medicine is a wonderful thing, however, needing five different dentists to fix all your dental issues can be overwhelming. I have dedicated my career to learning procedures across all specializations of dentistry, allowing me to perform most, if not all, treatment in my office. Complex dental needs are fixed in my office instead of sending patients out for multiple consultations before even beginning treatment. Of course, no one person can master all facets of dentistry, so when necessary I refer to carefully vetted specialists. I will attend the procedure with the specialist to ensure the work fits into the overall plan.

Q: You've been voted "Best Dentist" for several years running among multiple different platforms. What has contributed to your success? People don't like coming to the dentist. Instead of running from that fact, we built a practice to make solving dental problems as easy, efficient, and comfortable as possible.

Q: How have you helped people who have neglected their dental care overcome their fears? We cater to those who fear the dentist by providing a patient experience as transparent and efficient as possible. Also, our sedation menu includes IV sedation with a medical anesthesiologist. We find the right sedation level for every patient who needs it and, of course, we never judge anyone for their dental anxiety. Oh, and we run on time - which means if your appointment is at 10:00 AM that's when you'll be called back.

Q: What is your typical patient like? Most have major dental needs that would typically require multiple dental specialists to treat. They have been avoiding the dentist for years, things are getting worse, and they want a healthy mouth after years of struggle. Our patients want an advocate. They want to push that "Easy Button" we all search for when things seem overwhelming. They want someone to say, "Here's what's wrong, here are your options, let's figure out what works be
